

Filled with joy am I.
I have made the decision to stay in this campsite.
I shall place in the ground my stake.
To claim this ground that God has given to me freely.
I will place a tent on my campsite.
Maybe I shall build a cabin and move in permanently.
I shall stay in God's Camp.
I shall live on the ground God gave to me.
I shall allow my roots to grow deep within God.
I will be a "happy camper" this summer.
I shall continue to be a "happy camper" all the months and years that shall be granted to me by God Almighty.
You shall have a wonderful place of rest as God's Angels continue their work of refuge and protection.
Are you ready for the summer?
Do you have your bags packed?
Are you going on this summer camping trip?
Do you know your destination?
The destination is wherever you may be.
It is there that the "campsite of God" resides.
Your preservation is in and wherever your destination may be.
Continue to dwell with and within God.
The Angels of God shall accompany and defend you wherever you may be.
They shall encamp about you wherever your campsite resides.

From my "Rock House"

This is Karen Marie

©2002